

WYCKOFF SUBURBAN

THURSDAY, JANUARY 24, 2013

northjersey.com/wyckoff

Bitten honored

PHOTO BY PAULA BARBAGALLO

Carla Pappalardo presents a plaque to retiring Ramapo Indian Hills Supervisor of Social Studies Hank Bitten during a beefsteak dinner fundraiser for the FLOW Follies earlier this month. The annual parent variety show generates scholarships for graduating students of the two schools, and is scheduled for March 7-10 this year. For more photos on the dinner, see Page 3.

PHOTOS BY PAULA BARBAGALLO

Members of FLOW Follies organized a beefsteak dinner to honor retiring Ramapo Indian Hills Supervisor of Social Studies Hank Bitten Jan. 12 at the Oakland Elks Club.

Beefsteak dinner generates support for 'Follies'

Bill Luyk and Ron Carney check out a prize for the basket auction being held at the dinner.

Janet Hoogerheyde, Elaine and Hank Bitten, Carla Pappalardo and Cathy Hommes at the dinner.