

'Flow Your Boat' to variety show at Indian Hills - NorthJersey.com NorthJersey.com

Oakland — The curtain goes up at 7:30 tonight at Indian Hills High School on the FLOW Follies' 24th annual variety show.

PHOTO BY ROBIN GOTTESMAN

Buy this photo

FLOW Follies executive producer Sal Moffa leads a group of fellow thespians in a rendition of 'My Heart Will Go On' during a dress rehearsal Wednesday, March 10.

FLOW Follies is a nonprofit that raises scholarship money for graduating seniors of the regional high school district of Ramapo, in Franklin Lakes, and Indian Hills, which is also attended by students from Wyckoff. Last year, as a result of its fund-raising efforts, the organization was able to award $37,500 in scholarships to 50 students.

This year's show is called "Flow, Flow, Flow Your Boat." In addition to tonight's performance, the show will go on at the same time on Friday, March 12, and Saturday, March 13, with a 2 p.m. matinee on Sunday, March 14.

Tickets are $15 for adults and $8 for seniors, students and children.

For more information, contact Sal Moffa, the show's executive producer, at 201-790-3228 or at epflowfollies@gmail.com. Visit FLOW Follies at flowfollies.org/mambo.

Devententis@northjersey.com

